

The NJ Do Not Call List is an absolute blessing. Please do not tamper with it. Instead it should be a model for the rest of the USA. Dinner time and evenings are so much better now that I am not hounded by telephone marketers. The telephone marketers have no right to come into my home and disrupt us with these unwanted calls. Thankyou
Ed